CONVENTION
BUREAU

LET'S MEET IN MAZOVIA

Izabela Stelmańska,
CEO of the Tourism Organisation of the Mazovia Region

Why is it worth meeting in Mazovia?
Because Mazovia is a region of opportunities!

The largest, the most populated, and centrally located. With its capital city, Warsaw, the most important economic, scientific and cultural centre in the country. It is in Warsaw where financial, potential and business meetings take place. The natural direction to which this intensification is shifting is Mazovia. The voivodeship is well-connected, has a rich leisure offer, high-class hotel and conference facilities. This is where the business climate is created. The region provides everything necessary to develop trust and build relationships effectively. It also offers protected and wild nature, that astonishes visitors, and a distinctive and colourful culture. It has a heritage associated with its most recognisable composer, Frederic Chopin. There are also places telling his story in a modern, interactive and multilingual way. Another significant aspect is the history of Mazovia and wonderfully preserved monuments, from medieval castles to monumental 19th century fortresses. This unusual mix of Mazovia's attractions, combined with luxurious conference and accommodation facilities are a recipe for unforgettable experiences, creative stimulation and fresh business ideas. Mazovia Convention Bureau connects business, academic and institutional partners - supporting the development of the industry, creation of new products and effective acquisition of international events.

We look forward to working with you, welcome to Mazovia.

FREDERIC CHOPIN

Mazovia is the birthplace of one of the world's greatest composers, Frederic Chopin. The map of the region is rich in places connected with the famous pianist. The individual locations are linked by well-known and convenient hiking trails running through fields, meadows and forests, which is a typical landscape of Mazovia.

A popular destination is The Birthplace of Frederic Chopin in Żelazowa Wola, a place which was carefully restored and prepared for visitors, surrounded by a 7-hectare landscape park on the Utrata river. A visit to the biographical museum can be combined with visiting the historic St. Roch's Church in Brochów, where the composer's parents got married and he was baptised. An important place cultivating Chopin's musical identity of Mazovia is Sanniki, with its European Art Center the Fryderyk Chopin University. In Warsaw, on the other hand, a tour along the Chopin trail leads to the beautifully situated Ostrogski Castle, with its interactive Fryderyk Chopin Museum, and to Krakowskie Przedmieście, with the Kazimierzowski Palace and the Czapski Palace, where the Chopin family lived successively. It also leads to the Holy Cross Church, where Chopin's heart rests in, according to his will. The so-called Chopin benches, which are places to rest and, at the same time, monuments playing his famous works, entertain your trip in the composer's footsteps. They commemorate, among others, the place where young Frederick played, the conservatory he attended and his favourite cafés.

Mazovia.
heart of Poland

HISTORY

Monumental castles, fortresses and fortifications tell the most ancient history of Mazovia and the history of the partitions. Mazovia was crossed by trade routes, as well as roads used by armies - knights of King Jagiełło marching towards Grunwald, soldiers of The Great Army during The Napoleonic Wars in 1806 or Polish forces during the September campaign.

Three centuries of power in the hands of the Mazovian Piasts are etched on the map of the voivodeship with more than a hundred defensive and sacral buildings. One of the most beautiful churches is the Płock Cathedral on the Tumskie Hill, the final resting place of Polish rulers. The massive Modlin Fortress is also a phenomenon, as it is one of the best-preserved fortification systems in Europe, which can only be compared to the French Verdun. If you visit the monumental castles of the Mazovian Dukes - in Ciechanów and Czersk, the real journey to the Middle Ages is guaranteed. This is where the craft workshops, fairs and colourful outdoor events stylized for tournaments from the that era are held. Mazovian industrial monuments, many of which are open to the public, are also very popular. This concerns both the oldest testimonies of technological thought, such as The Mazovian Centre of Metallurgy, which is described interactively by The Stefan Woyda Museum of Ancient Mazovian Metallurgy in Pruszków, and the 19th century milestones of development, for instance the Warsaw-Vienna Railway and elements of its infrastructure preserved to this day. There are over 100 unusual places on the Industrial Mazovia trail that tempt lovers of large constructions, former factories, automotive and inventions.

Mazovia.
heart of Poland

NATURE

The phenomenon of Mazovian nature is testified by the share of protected areas, which cover more than 1 million hectares of the voivodeship. These areas stretch along the region's major rivers, while creating safe animal migration paths.

Among them, the most important and significant in Europe is the Vistula ecological corridor, a natural „highway” for biodiversity. The list of Mazovia's natural „highlights” starts with the Kampinoski National Park - a UNESCO World Biosphere Reserve with an inland dune complex that is unique on a European scale. The park is literally adjacent to the capital city. It is crossed by hundreds of kilometres of hiking and cycling tourist routes, ideal for walking, horse riding and cross-country skiing in winter. There are also some very interesting attractions, from places of entertainment such as the Julinek Amusement Park, to the narrow-gauge railway and the Palmiry Museum–Memorial Site. Valuable plant formations in combination with historical or regionally characteristic buildings are protected within landscape parks, of which there are as many as nine in Mazovia. Among them, the Kozienice Landscape Park, in some places reminiscent of a primeval forest, is very popular. Protected birds' lovers head to regions of beautiful Mazovian rivers. The valley of the Bug river delights with its wild, inaccessible meanders, while the banks of the Wkra are covered with rare and valuable riparian forests. The Wkra river is popular among canoeists and as it is a typically lowland river with a gentle current, it is also chosen by the less experienced ones. Canoeing is an integrating attraction, available in almost every corner of the region. The waterways are popular both on small rivers, such as the Jeziorka or Skrwa river, and famous ones, such as the Narew, Pilica and Vistula river.

Mazovia.
heart of Poland

CULTURE

The culture of Mazovia is often rightly associated with some of the most important events in Poland's theatrical, musical, and artistic calendar. It is in the capital and in Mazovia that world-famous meetings and events, such as the Jazz Jamboree, the Fryderyk Chopin International Piano Competition, or the Summer Fall Festival, take place.

Warsaw possesses a unique magnetism, which it shares with the world's major capitals. It is open, inspiring, and filled with opportunities. It serves as a setting for the exchange of bold, innovative ideas, styles, and currents of thought. In addition to Warsaw, international events have electrified the stages in Płock (the summer Gloria festival and the alternative Audioriver), Radom (the poetic łażnia and the philosophy festival Okna) or Siedlce (MOK Summer Music Festival).

What is important is that Mazovia is also home to ethnic and folk culture, cultivated with extraordinary enthusiasm. Visitors are delighted by the colourful Kurpie folklore at the Kurpie Museum in Wach and the open-air ethnographic museum in Kadzidło. Festivals and events, such as Palm Sunday in Kurpie, fairs, Miodobranie Kurpiowskie, or the Kurpie Wedding, are still very much alive in the Ostrołęka area. Other places on the map of folk culture in Mazovia include the Museum of Rural Architecture in Kuligowo, the Museum of the Mazovian Countryside in Sierpc, and the Museum of the Radom Countryside in Radom. A special place among them is occupied by the Open-Air Museum of Rural Architecture in Granica, as it is located within the Kampinos National Park.

It should not be forgotten that Mazovia is a region with strong agricultural traditions, and consequently, it boasts an extraordinary and varied cuisine. This cuisine features orchard accents, preserves, liqueurs, rural and court influences, as well as flavors adopted from representatives of other faiths and nationalities living in the neighbourhood.

The Mazovia Centre of Contemporary Art "Elektrownia" is one of the most famous industrial buildings, which, thanks to revitalisation, has gained the second life. Interestingly, the restoration of the Elektrownia was helped, among others, by a Radom-born, outstanding director Andrzej Wajda. A characteristic element and the symbol of the Centre is a neon sign in the shape of a cloud on the roof of the new part of the building by a German artist, Thorsten Goldberg. Today, it is a magnificent exhibition space with excellent conference and meeting facilities.

Today's building is the outcome of numerous reconstructions carried out since the first half of the 18th century. The palace is U-shaped: the two side annexes are connected to the main body of the palace by galleries. One of the galleries contains a hothouse with thermophilous plants. The most interesting object in the park is the newly renovated Siberia chateau, which houses the exhibition on the history of the chateau complex.
